Our mission is to promote healthy, sustainable plant life through the highest quality nutrients and innovative products.

It's been more than 70 years since Knox Fertilizer first opened its doors. We've grown a lot over the years, and the values we were founded on still ring true. We still take pride in the meaning of a handshake, just like we still take pride in the natural beauty our products provide. And that's why we're proud to have Schultz plant foods as part of our family of products. The Schultz line has a history of performance, which, when supported by our resources, will continue to provide you with a reliable, consistent product now and for years to come.

We appreciate all questions and comments that you might have.
